AFFA Small Grant Application Form:
The AFFA Small Grants Program funds programming, organization building and/or support to nonprofit organizations addressing the needs of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and questioning youth (LGBTQQIA).

Eligibility
- Grants will be considered for organizations that are:
  - Based in North Carolina, South Carolina or Georgia
  - Nonprofit and exempt from federal taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or utilizing a fiscal sponsor.
  - Nondiscriminatory by policy.
  - Working for fundamental social change and demonstrating practical alternatives to social justice for LGBTQQIA youth.

Grant Making Program
Grants are available to grassroots, local and state organizations in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia which are designated as 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, and which work to improve the quality of life among LGBTQQ youth.

Organizations which have not yet received their 501(c)(3) IRS status, must include proof of a 501(c)(3) fiscal agent. Grant priority will be given to groups working for long-term social change, and emotional health among LGBTQQI individuals.

Recent examples of requests include:
- Supporting the programs of Gay-Straight Student Associations working to increase Transgender inclusion on campus
- Travel money for students to attend LGBTQQIA training events such as “Campus Pride” or to send a group of LGBTQQI students to an Outward Bound Program. Please contact the AFFA office for information on scholarships for Creating Change.
- Bringing in speakers for campus wide events, e.g. one campus is inviting an “out” professional sports figure, the LGBTQQIA group then collaborated with the Athletics Department to engage campus athletes to participate.
- Developing a community awareness workshop on LGBTQQIA youth and domestic violence issues.
- Purchasing needed books or materials for LGBTQQIA resource center on campus
- Collaborative projects with other nonprofits, e.g. a youth organization and a local film society developing LGBTQQIA youth themed film curriculum for the community
- Funding a series of social interactions for a network of GSA’s, e.g. a gay prom.

Grant Size
Organizations are eligible for grants from $500 to a maximum of $4,000 per year from the AFFA Small Grants Program. Funding in subsequent years is conditional on compliance with reporting requirements, continued progress toward meeting stated goals and objectives, and demonstrated impact of activities.
Criteria

The following will be considered in evaluating the organizations submitting proposals:

- Youth Involvement: in the organizing and governance of the organization and project.
- Impact: Organizations with a proven record of impact. New organizations must show they have the requisite plans and people in place to make impact.
- Planning: Organizations with well-developed strategies and goals, and with realistic plans for accomplishing them.
- Measurement: Groups who demonstrate the ability to measure goals and outcomes.
- Systems Level: Organizations demonstrating that they are working toward change at the systems level will be given priority; meaning, organizations working to affect attitudes and behavior at the community, political, cultural or policy level.
- Fundraising: Groups which demonstrate funding from a wide number of sources when possible, and which include fundraising by youth.
- Fiscal Responsibility: Organizations which demonstrate the ability to make and adhere to budgets, use financial resources wisely, and garner in-kind resources.
- Collaboration: Groups who collaborate with allies
- Leadership Training: organizations which develop leadership skill sets in LGBTQQIA youth.
- Emotional Health: organizations who recognize and respond to building emotional health and self-esteem in LGBTQQIA youth.
